New York State Department of Taxation and Finance

Application for an Exempt Organization Certificate Power of Attorney

This Power of Attorney is valid only for appointing a representative to receive oral or written communications in conjunction with the review of your organization's application for an Exempt Organization Certificate by the Sales Tax Exempt Organizations Unit. It may not be used to protest the denial of an application for an Exempt Organization Certificate or to request a hearing before the Division of Tax Appeals on such a denial since your appointed representative may not be a qualified representative for these purposes. Your organization must use Form POA-1 in these instances.
